Hi Liz,

Apologies for the late reply.

Yes, you are correct, all policies in the Local Plan are strategic for the purposes of neighbourhood planning.

Kind regards,

Subject: Strategic Policies in the Local Plan

Hi [REDACTED],

You will be aware that the NPPF now requires Local Plans to identify strategic policies (para21). As the Local Plan is comprised of explicitly strategic policies, site allocations and DM policy, and you have quoted the DM policies in your response at Reg16, I am assuming that all policy in the Local Plan is strategic for the purposes of neighbourhood planning. Please either confirm this, or correct my initial assumption. Is there a statement in the Local Plan to this effect? I couldn't find one.

Thanks
Liz
